Joe's Valley Reservoir

The water on the lake is a beautiful green color and doesn't have a lot of people on it.

This and other reservoirs in the county provide a reliable source of water in an arid area, as well as camping, fishing, and water activities.

The dam gives us the water we need to drink, for our crops, and for recreation.