Monticello Elementary School

The school has a lot of excellent programs in place, such as computer lab, singing class, gym class, band, plus a great group of teachers who really care.

This is a Centennial school; it represents education in this county, which has the highest minority percentage of any district in the state, yet produces scholars in many areas.