

Aspen Achievement Academy

This organization takes students at risk; many are there as a last resort before incarceration. Before, residents felt comfortable leaving their doors unlocked and keys in ignition--no more--now doors are locked and vehicles secured.

One of the few places of employment and a major contributor to the local economy; students impact land negatively.

Trained staff help troubled teenagers overcome problems; it renders service and needed employment in community.

