

Willow Creek Coal Mine

This newly opened mine is using rail lines and loadouts that were once abandoned by previous owners. The coal industry is the heartbeat of Carbon and Emery Counties.

Reopening this facility has created some new jobs, helping to strengthen our economy.

This mine represents all of our mines in the county; it employs many of the men in our area.