

Millsite Golf Course & Spillway

The golf course brings people from all over because it is a challenging course, which brings money to our community.

We of Emery County can't wait until the spillway is running; it is so nice to watch but it is just water that is wasted after it goes over the spillway.

This overflow is an example of how the dams and reservoirs in the area help us to utilize our water better.

