

Star Hall

It is a fine, old original building in which cultural features take place; these add interest, variety, and educational opportunities to life here.

Plays and community events take place here; the kind of cultural opportunities we need more of in this town.

We should try to preserve old buildings that may be remodeled and used indefinitely in important ways.