

College of Eastern Utah at San Juan

We are fortunate to have this great facility of higher learning; it has grown and provides advantages to both Anglos and Native Americans.

The college provides local opportunities for college education and gives lower income families the opportunity to stay home and receive an education.

College provides cultural events, library, jobs, helps reduce higher education costs for residents' children, and elevates the image of the community.