

Edge of the Cedars State Park Museum

Provides various changing exhibits and programs and expanded learning opportunities; it benefits the community economically by attracting nonresidents, which results in more services and facilities to meet the demands of the visitors.

It is a beautiful facility with artifacts and literature about the area and the ancient people that roamed here.